STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In December, 1956, the Chief Ministers of Madras and Andhra Pradesh requested Shri H. V. Pataskar to mediate in settling the boundaries of the two States. Shri Pataskar submitted his report in July, 1957, which was followed by a supplementary report.

2. Shri Pataskar's award was accepted by the Chief Ministers of Madras and Andhra Pradesh on behalf of their respective governments at the meeting of the Southern Zonal Council held at Hyderabad on the 28th September, 1957.

3. According to Shri Pataskar's award, the following territorial adjustments are to be made between the two States :—

(i) 318 villages from the Tiruttani, Chittoor and Puttur taluks of Chittoor district and a small forest area in the Palamner taluk will be transferred from Andhra Pradesh to Madras ; and

(ii) 148 villages of the Tiruvallur and Ponneri taluks of Chingleput district and 3 villages of the Krishnagiri taluk of Salem district will be transferred from Madras to Andhra Pradesh.

Certain forest areas and tanks enclosed by or adjoining the transferred villages will also be transferred from Andhra Pradesh to Madras or from Madras to Andhra Pradesh, as the case may be.

4. The Bill seeks to give effect to the award. It also makes the necessary supplemental and incidental provisions relating to representation in the legislatures, apportionment of assets and liabilities, authorisation of expenditure and other matters.

5. Under the proviso to article 3 of the Constitution, the Bill was referred by the President on the 16th April, 1959, to the Legislatures of the States of Andhra Pradesh and Madras for expressing their views and the two Legislatures have approved of its provisions.

GOVIND BALLABH PANT.,

NEW DELHI ;

The 1st August, 1959.

Notes on clauses

Clause 3.—Under sub-clause (a) of this clause, the following territories of the State of Madras mentioned in the First Schedule will stand transferred to the State of Andhra Pradesh:—

(1) 72 villages with certain forest areas from Ponneri taluk of Chingleput district.

(2) 76 villages with certain forest areas from Tiruvallur taluk of Chingleput district.

(3) 3 villages from Krishnagiri taluk of Salem district.

Under sub-clause (b) of this clause, the following territories of the State of Andhra Pradesh mentioned in the Second Schedule will stand transferred to the State of Madras:—

(1) 288 villages from Tiruttani taluk of Chittoor district.

(2) 29 villages from Chittoor taluk of Chittoor district.

(3) 1 village from Puttur taluk of Chittoor district.

Certain forest areas and tanks enclosed by or adjoining the transferred villages will also be transferred from Andhra Pradesh to Madras and vice versa.

Clauses 4, 5 and 7.— In clauses 4 and 5, provision has been made for constituting certain transferred territories either as separate taluks or as parts of specified firkas or taluks in the State to which they will stand transferred on the appointed day. This is in order to facilitate the making of suitable administrative arrangements on and from that day without any break. Clause 7 expressly saves the power of the State Governments to alter the name, extent and boundaries of any district or other territorial divisions in the States.

Clause 6.—This clause seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Constitution, to give effect to the changes in the boundaries of the existing States of Madras and Andhra Pradesh.

Clauses 8 and 9.—The representation of the State of Madras in the Council of States is proposed to be increased from 17 to 18 in accordance with the formula for the fixation of seats which is applicable in the case of the Council of States and a provision has been made in clause 9 to hold a bye-election, soon after the appointed day, to fill up this additional seat allotted to that State. The term of office of the member so elected to the Council of States will expire on the 2nd day of April, 1962.

Clauses 10 and 11.—So far as the representation of the two States in the House of the People is concerned, clause 10 read with the Fourth Schedule provides for some minor adjustments in the delimitation of certain constituencies not involving an increase in the number of seats in that House. Clause 11 provides that the sitting member of the House of the People representing a constituency the extent of which has been altered by clause 10 shall be deemed to have been elected to the said House by that constituency as so altered.

Clause 12.—It is proposed to increase the total number of seats in the Madras Legislative Assembly by one, i.e., from 205 to 206 and to reduce the total number of seats in the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly by one, i.e., from 301 to 300, in view of the net transfer of population from the State of Andhra Pradesh to the State of Madras.

Clauses 13 and 14.—These clauses read with the Fifth and Sixth Schedules provide for the necessary adjustments in the Assembly Constituencies in both the States.

Clause 15.—Sub-clauses (1) and (2).—Provision is made in these sub-clauses that notwithstanding the alterations made in certain Assembly constituencies mentioned therein, the members representing those constituencies shall be deemed to have been elected to the respective Assemblies by those constituencies as altered by this Bill.

Sub-clauses (3) and (4).—Provision has been made in these sub-clauses to the effect that the sitting members for the Tiruttani constituency of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly will represent the new Sathyavedu constituency in Andhra Pradesh and that the sitting member of that Assembly representing the Ramakrishnarajupet constituency will cease to be a member of that Assembly and be deemed to have been elected to the Legislative Assembly of Madras from the new Tiruttani constituency in the State of Madras.

Clauses 16 and 17.—It is proposed that notwithstanding the alterations made in the extent of certain council constituencies, the sitting members representing those constituencies shall be deemed to have been elected to the respective Legislative Councils by those constituencies as altered.

Clauses 18 to 21.—Provision has been made for the alteration of the jurisdiction of the High Court of Andhra Pradesh and the High Court at Madras in respect of the transferred territories. These clauses also provide for the transfer of proceedings pending in either of the High Courts to the other High Court and for advocates and attorneys already engaged in those proceedings to appear and to act in the other High Court in relation to those proceedings.

Clause 22.—Doubts may arise whether the State Appropriation Acts for the year 1959-60 authorise the spending of any amount in or for the transferred territories. Sub-clause (1) is intended to remove any such doubts. In order that the administration in the transferred territories may be carried on until the concerned State Legislature has sanctioned expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State and passed the necessary Appropriation Act, provision is also made in sub-clause (2) of this clause for the Governor of Andhra Pradesh or Madras, as the case may be, to authorise, after the appointed day, such expenditure for a period of three months from the appointed day.

Clause 23.—Under article 151(2) of the Constitution, the reports of the Comptroller and Auditor-General relating to the accounts of a State shall be submitted to the Governor and then laid before the Legislature of that State. In view of the territorial adjustments proposed between the States of Andhra Pradesh and Madras, special provision has been made in clause 23 that the audit reports relating to the accounts of either of the States in respect of any period prior to the appointed day shall be submitted to the Governor of each of the two States who shall cause them to be laid before the Legislature of the State.

Clause 24.—In this clause, it has been provided that certain provisions of the Union Duties of Excise (Distribution) Act, 1957, the Estate Duty and Tax on Railway Passenger Fares (Distribution) Act, 1957, the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957, and the Constitution (Distribution of Revenues) No. 2 Order, 1957, shall have effect subject to such modifications as the President may, by order, specify having regard to the transfer of territories proposed in this Bill.

Clauses 25 to 37.—These clauses relate to the apportionment of assets and liabilities between the States of Andhra Pradesh and Madras which are affected by the provisions of this Bill and follow generally the corresponding provisions of the Andhra State Act, 1953. Thus certain assets like lands and buildings, stores, articles and other goods including treasury balances will pass to the State in which such assets are physically located (see clause 25). Similarly, the right to recover arrears of taxes or duties and any loans and advances made before the appointed day by either of the two States to any local body, society or any person in the transferred territories shall belong to the State to which those territories will stand transferred (see clauses 26 and 27) and the liability of the State of Andhra Pradesh or Madras to refund any tax or duty collected in excess in the transferred territories shall be of that State to which those territories stand transferred (see clause 28). Since it is desirable that private parties should know with which State they will have to deal in respect of rights and liabilities under the subsisting contracts and outstanding liabilities in respect of actionable wrongs, appropriate provisions clarifying the position are proposed in clauses 32 and 33.

The general provisions made in this part may not cover all possible cases of the division of assets and liabilities fully and satisfactorily. Clause 36 vests the Central Government with the power to make such adjustments in these cases as may be found just and equitable. It is proposed that this power should be exercisable by the Central Government only on a reference being made by the aggrieved State within a period of three years from the appointed day and only after consultation with the two State Governments.

Clause 38.—It is proposed to extend the jurisdiction of the Andhra Pradesh State Financial Corporation to the territories transferred from the State of Madras to the State of Andhra Pradesh and to exclude from its jurisdiction the territories transferred from the State of Andhra Pradesh to the State of Madras. Similarly, it is proposed to extend the jurisdiction of the Madras Industrial Investment Corporation to the territories transferred from the State of Andhra Pradesh to the State of Madras and to exclude from its jurisdiction the territories transferred from the State of Madras to the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Clause 39.—This clause seeks to amend the Multi-Unit Co-operative Societies Act, 1942, so as to provide a simpler procedure for the reconstitution of co-operative societies which on account of any reorganisation of States like the one under this Bill may become multi-unit co-operative societies.

Clause 40.—Under this clause, the State Electricity Boards constituted under the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, for the States of Andhra Pradesh and Madras will be deemed to have been constituted for those States with their areas as altered by the provisions of this Bill. The undertakings and assets of a State Electricity Board situated in the transferred territories will pass to the State to which those territories are transferred, and subject to this provision, the assets and liabilities of these Electricity Boards will be apportioned by mutual agreement between the two State Governments within a period of one year or in default of such agreement, as the Central Government may by order determine. Provision has also been made for the continuance of the arrangements, which, immediately before the appointed day were in force, in regard to the generation or supply of electric power in the transferred territories, on agreed terms or in default of agreement, as the Central Government may determine.

Clause 41.—As a result of the territorial changes proposed, the Araniar Project site will be transferred from the State of Madras to the State of Andhra Pradesh. Under sub-clauses (1) to (3), the rights and liabilities of the State of Madras in relation to the Araniar Project or the administration thereof on the appointed day shall be the rights and liabilities of both the States of Andhra Pradesh and Madras subject to such adjustments as may be agreed between the two States, or in default of such an agreement, as the Central Government may determine. Sub-clause (4) empowers the Central Government in the meantime to give such directions as may appear to it necessary in this regard for the completion of the project and its operation and maintenance thereafter.

Clause 42.—The object of clause 42 is to continue without serious disturbance the existing inter-State arrangements in regard to road transport permits for motor vehicles.

Clause 43.—This clause contains the transitory provision relating to the State services. Those serving in connection with the affairs of the State of Andhra Pradesh or Madras will provisionally continue so to serve, unless they are required by a general or special order of the Central Government to serve provisionally in the other State. As soon as practicable after the appointed day, the Central Government will decide upon the allocation of all these officers to a particular State and the date of making such allotment. Sub-clause (5) of this clause empowers the Central Government to issue at any time before or after the appointed day, necessary directions to the two State Governments in this regard.

Clause 44.—This clause provides for the continuance of officers in the same or corresponding posts on or after the appointed day, subject to the right of the competent authority, after the appointed day, to pass in relation to such officers any order affecting their continuance in such posts.

Clauses 45 to 52.—These clauses contain the usual provisions of a legal nature. Clause 45 makes it clear that territorial extent of existing laws and territorial references in those laws will not be automatically altered by reason of anything contained in Part II of this Bill. Power to adapt laws is conferred by clause 46 on the Central and State Governments to be exercised within a period of one year from the appointed day.

Clause 53.—It is proposed to confer on the President the power to do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of this Bill in order to remove any difficulty which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of this Bill.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 54 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules to give effect to the provisions of the Bill when enacted. The rules, if any, will be confined to matters of procedure and other matters of minor detail relating to the enforcement of the provisions regarding transfer of territories.

2. Clause 46 empowers the Central Government as well as the Governments of Andhra Pradesh and Madras to adapt existing laws in order to facilitate their application to the two States after the alteration of their boundaries. This power will be available until the expiration of one year from the appointed day.

3. The proposed delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.
